Woodberry Down Community Ambassador

Do you feel like you're left out of decisions that affect you and your community?

If you were given the opportunity to make real positive change in your community AND be PAID to do so, would you take it?

If the answer to those questions is YES then today is your lucky day. My Place is recruiting young people from Woodberry Down who will be trained and employed to be leaders and representatives for their communities, and to work with those in power to make Woodberry Down better for everyone. As a Woodberry Down Community Ambassador, you will learn all the necessary skills to go out and research how people in Woodberry Down feel about their area and the issues they are facing, and to represent the views of the community with decision makers in order to create positive change

What will you get out of it?

- You will be paid £7.50 an hour
- You will receive exclusive high-level training from professionals including university researchers
- An impressive addition to your CV and/or personal statement that will look good on university, work experience and job applications
- Improve your personal and professional skills, and gain transferable skills which can be applied to other fields of work and life:
  - Research skills
  - Verbal, written, and digital communication skills
  - Design and creative skills including website and social media design
  - Leadership skills
  - Presentation and advocacy skills
  - Report writing skills
- Grow your confidence and be empowered to be a leader in your community
- Have your voice heard: Connect with influential decision makers and leaders
- Work with local communities and decision makers to create real positive change for you, your friends, family, and the people of Woodberry Down

What do we need from you?

- To apply you must be 13-20 years old
- You must live inside the blue line on this map
- Be passionate about helping your community and want to help build a better and positive future for Woodberry Down
- Want to develop your skills and life experiences, and invest in yourself as a leader
